HOW TO PLAN A MURDER™

Copyright 1986

Bored? Need a change? Don't fall asleep another night reading a worn out copy of Agatha Christie. How About a spine-tingling evening of murder & mayhem? Nothing like a good old fashion murder and spending the night in a haunted mansion to bring romance back into your life.

Call not for reservations . . . we have limited space for victims.

The Plan*

Friday's Mystery :

Check-in 5:00PM to 7:00PM

Mystery begins at 7:30PM

Saturday's Mystery:

Check-in 4:00PM to 6:00PM

Mystery begins at 6:30PM

Cocktail Party. In library with roaring fire in fireplace. (No! not in the summer!)
The murder begins to unravel. Watch the hostess, the maids, . . . that sinister housekeeper.

- 7:00 Depart for the cemetery to visit Elmer's Grave. (Elmer McCurdy Mystery only)
- 7:30 Dinner is served. 7 course candlelit dinner (don't eat the mushrooms!)
- 8:30 Return to the library. Time for a murder investigation. What was that Mr. Green poured into the brandy?
- 10:00 Dessert! Yea! Something very sinful, I'm sure, with hot coffee or tea.
- 10:30 Return to the library & discuss the solution. Why haven't the police arrived? Don't tell me! The river is up & we can't leave! Will we be "sleeping with the enemy!?" Who will save us?
- 11:30 Going to bed? Really think you can sleep? Try taking a warm bubble bath in your Clawfooted tub or relax in a hot tub for two (WhitePeacock Only). What are those strange sounds? Time for soft light & romance. (Snuggle close. The Ghost might get you!!)

NEXT DAY

8:00PM Coffee & newspaper with cook in the kitchen.

9:00PM Breakfast while hostess tells the history of the house and the ghost stories.

Breakfast can be delivered only to Red Brick and Roses in picnic basket.

HOW DO THE MURDERS WORK?

We do Murder Mysteries every Friday and Saturday Night for anyone wishing to participate. You do not need a group to attend a murder on the weekends. The price for a Murder Mystery is $52. per person on Fri. and Sat. not including lodging. The Mysteries include a 7 course dinner and beverages (alcoholic beverages not included). If you wish to spend the night, the average package with lodging is $215. per couple. The average cost varies depending on the room size and amenities you choose. Included in the package when you spend the night is the 7 course dinner, the murder mystery party, night's lodging and a great breakfast in the morning (if you live). You do not have to be a couple to attend. You might be two girl friends or guy friends, or a mom and daughter, etc. Murders are done in previous era's, usually the 1920's, 30's, or 40's. Before you arrive you will receive a packet of information explaining details about your murder mystery. You will be assigned a part to play and receive a short description of your character and a scenario for the evening. This packet will give you suggestions for dress, what time to arrive, a list of movies to watch to get you in the mood for murder, and actual news stories about the events of the era in which the murder occurs.

The Usual Suspects

We can usually get one or two couples in with a week or less notice. Saturday nights usually book up faster than Friday nights. If you are bringing a group, it may take a few weeks to a month to get reservations. If you are planning on coming from October through February, this is our high season and you may wish to make advanced reservations.

From 30 to 40 people participate in each murder. We house 6 couples at the Stone Lion Inn, 2 couples in the Cottage, 2 couples at Red Brick and Roses, and 6 couples at the White Peacock. The murder mystery

This 1907 stately Victorian Mansion has been lovingly restored to preserve the authenticity of this historical home---making sure to retain its original charm and ambiance. We want you to experience what it must have been like to live in a gracious old mansion complete with servants. We have upstairs setting rooms and downstairs parlors and a library. You may choose to eat dinner in the oak paneled dining room rather than going out for the evening and if you're up early enough you may wish to drink coffee with "Cook" sitting at a 200 year old French country kitchen table that seats ten.

The elegant interior features leaded glass bookshelves, huge pocket-doors, Adam's staircase, 3 fireplaces, and bathrooms with Clawfooted tubs. The grounds are lush with pecan trees, flowers, and lilac bushes. Sit in our gazebo and enjoy watching the squirrels.

Each morning you'll awaken to hot French pressed coffee, fresh blueberries and strawberries in rum cream, quiche of the day, muffins, and Canadian Bacon. Put on one of the terry cloth robes we furnish and come down for breakfast.

The Stone Lion Inn is the home of the Murder Mystery Weekends. Don't forget to ask about the ghost up on the 3rd floor in the old ballroom.

This stately Colonial Revival will remind you of Tara with its wide verandahs and balcony. Built in 1897 by the powerful Frank Greer, publisher of the first newspaper in the Oklahoma Territory, the house is historically one of the Oklahoma's most important homes. Greer, a Republican, built a publishing empire but was often at odds with the Governor, Charles Haskell, a Democrat. This feud is credited to Haskell stealing the Great Seal of The State of Oklahoma and moving the Capital to Oklahoma City. The house was divided into apartments in the 1920's and has remain such until now. We are in the process of restoring the old mansion in deep, rich, Colonial colors and English Country House touches giving it a warm, rich elegance..Currently only four suites a large dining room, living room, library, and country kitchen for our guests .
